Initial Comments

Applicants' election to prosecute the species "N,N-dimethylaminoethyl-N'-methylaminoethanol" is noted.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Upon consideration of applicants' amendments, terminal disclaimer, and remarks all rejections from the Office action mailed 6-9-04 are hereby withdrawn.

The allowability for claims directed towards the following species is noted :

N,N-dimethylaminoethyl-N'-methylaminoethanol

N-acetyleneethylenediamine

N,N,N'-trimethyldiethylenetriamine

N,N,N',N''-tetramethyltriethylenetetramine

N N N' N'' N'''-pentamethyltetraethylenepentamine

N,N,N' N'' N''' N''''- hexamethylpentaethylenehexamine

Art Unit: 1711

It is clear, upon review of the structure of "polyoxypropylenediamine" (i.e. a two Nitrogen = diamine) and the supporting disclosure at page 11 lines 7-9, that the identifier " N,N,N',N'',N''',N''''- " needs to be removed from the claims before the term "polyoxypropylenediamine".

The following rejection is set forth herein:

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 23 and 29-33 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Lacarte et al.(6,534,556).

Lacarte et al. discloses preparations of rigid polyurethane foams prepared using polyoxypropylenediamine catalysts, hydrofluorocarbon blowing agents such as HFC-245fa, water, and other auxiliary agents in amounts meeting the amount values of applicants' claims (see column 5 lines 46-49, column 6 lines 57, the examples, and the claims, as well as, the entire document).

Although the apparent typographical error at column 6 line 57 of the patent is noted (i.e. pentafluoropropane is recited as pentafluoropentane), the record of the patent is clear, particularly, with the explicit recitation of "(245fa)" after the term, and, additionally, upon review of the accompanying species immediately preceding its recitation. This typographical error does not negate this patent's anticipation of the instant claims.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
